Transforming Your Karma: Expanding the Influence of Grace in Your Life

Featuring: Lynn Sparrow Christy

Karma and Grace. Twin laws that contain the essence of the universal law that governs everything we will ever experience in this life and in lives to come. Yet what do we really know about them? And how practical is our understanding of these two great laws? This one-day program is an interactive experience which delves into the wealth of information in the Edgar Cayce readings regarding the action of both karma and grace in our lives. With an ongoing focus on application to real situations in your own life, it will be an opportunity for you to work intentionally toward greater alignment of your consciousness, priorities and behavioral choices around universal law – the true “secret” to happiness, peace, and well-being.

As a life coach/hypnotherapist, workshop facilitator Lynn Sparrow Christy has been helping clients identify and live their souls’ values for nearly 15 years. She has also been bringing the life-changing richness of the Edgar Cayce readings to conferences and workshops for the past 30 years. This day offers a distillation of some of the best and most practical approaches she has found in working with spiritually-aware people who are on the verge of breakthrough to the next level in their personal growth and service to the world.
